1995 OUTLOOK

After struggling with injuries during the second half of the 1994 season, the Wright State volleyball team looks ahead to 1995 with a mixture of youth and experience. While the squad will have three seniors and five letterwinners back overall from last season, half of the team will be freshmen as five join the squad this season.

Leading the list of returnees will be one of the co-most valuable players from last season, junior setter Lisa Dearden. Dearden recorded the fifth most assists ever for a Wright State player last season with 1158, and after only two seasons is third on the all-time Raider assist list with 2307. Her 90 block assists were second on the team last season, and she was the only player in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference to be ranked in both assists and blocks per game. Dearden led the team in service aces with 30 in 1994 and was second in block assists with 90 and third in digs with 185.

Also returning for Wright State is senior outside hitter Jennifer Bringman. Bringman was third in the MCC last season in digs per game at 3.48. Her 358 digs led the squad and were the tenth best all-time for a Raider. She enters this season fifth on the WSU all-time digs list with 1075, and at her current pace she will become the school's all-time dig leader by the end of this season. Bringman was second on the team in kills last season with 292, and tied for second in service aces with 26. Bringman and Dearden are the only returnees to play in every game last season.

Senior middle blocker Kristen Broscheid also returns after being one of four Raiders last season to record 200 or more kills with 215. She was second on the team in digs with 225 and fourth in service aces with 18. The third senior on the 1995 squad is defensive specialist Jenny Beaudet. Beaudet recorded 10 service aces and 77 digs coming off the bench in 1994. The fifth returnee for 1995 is junior outside hitter Mollie Schuler, who missed much of last season with injuries. Schuler did record, however, 13 service aces and 76 digs in limited action and was second on the team behind Dearden in assists with 17.

Five freshmen will join the Wright State roster this season. Outside hitter Joanna Downie was an all-state selection in Colorado as both a junior and a senior and middle hitter Carrie Monnes was the Ohio Division II Player of the Year in 1994. Middle hitter Kelli Fisher and outside hitter Tosha Johnson were both honorable mention Ohio Division I all-state picks as seniors and outside hitter Michelle Yeary was a second team all-area selection.

Wright State will be in its second season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in 1995, which has eight members for volleyball. They are Butler, Cleveland State, Illinois-Chicago, Loyola, Northern Illinois, Wisconsin-Green Bay, Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Wright State. Unlike last season when the conference played a single round-robin schedule, the MCC will play a double round-robin in 1995, meaning 14 conference matches this season instead of 10 in 1994.

On the nonconference side of the schedule, the Raiders will participate in September tournaments at Virginia and at North Carolina State before hosting Ohio State, a Final Four participant last season, in the home opener on September 12. Wright State will then host its first tournament since 1991 the weekend of September 15 and 16 when it welcomes Indiana, Marshall, Navy and Valparaiso in the Blocksport Challenge. The remainder of the nonconference schedule will be meetings with Cincinnati, Bowling Green, Kent, Dayton, Memphis and Morehead State. The regular season will conclude with the MCC Tournament November 17 and 18, hosted by the regular season champion.

The Raiders will have a new addition to the coaching staff this season but not to the program as Joylynn Mosier, a four-year letterwinner for Wright State from 1989-92 and an undergraduate assistant in 1993, returns as the assistant coach this season.

With the combination of experience and youth on this year's squad, it should be a very interesting and exciting year for Wright State volleyball.

HEAD COACH

Steve Opperman

Head Coach

Fifth Year

Steve Opperman enters his fifth season as head coach of the Wright State volleyball team. It is his sixth year overall with the program as he was an assistant coach in 1990 under then head coach Linda Schoenstedt, now the head coach at Iowa.

Prior to coming to Wright State, the New Bremen, Ohio, native was an assistant at the University of Dayton for one season. In 1987, Opperman served as an assistant coach for the Arizona Junior Volleyball Club.

During his four seasons as head coach, the Raiders have finished second in the conference tournament twice and have advanced twice to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship. One first-team all-conference selection, four second-team all-conference selections, a conference newcomer of the year choice and two conference all-tournament picks have come during Opperman's tenure.

Opperman played collegiate volleyball as an outside hitter at Ohio State and obtained his bachelor's degree in marketing there in 1987.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Joylynn Mosier

Assistant Coach

First Year

Joylynn Mosier is a newcomer to the Raider coaching staff as the assistant coach this season, but 1995 will be her sixth season as part of the Wright State volleyball program.

A four-year letterwinner as an outside hitter from 1989-92, Mosier led Wright State in kills her final two seasons with 336 in 1991 and 311 in 1992. For her career, she collected 711 kills in 294 games along with 56 assists, 68 service aces, 13 block solos, 130 block assists and 298 digs. She was then an undergraduate assistant during the 1993 season for Wright State.

Mosier is the only member of the volleyball team to be connected with each of Wright State's three appearances in the National Invitational Volleyball Championship. She was a player when the Raiders made the NIVC in 1989 and 1991 and was the undergraduate assistant when Wright State participated in 1993.

Her primary duties as assistant coach include organizing practice sessions, recruiting and aiding Opperman with match strategy.

Mosier is a native of Fostoria, Ohio, and a graduate of Hopewell-Loudon High School, the same high school that current Raider Jenny Beaudet attended. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Wright State in December 1993.

Rob Gatrell

Assistant Coach

First Year

Rob Gatrell, who has been involved as a coach on the high school and junior olympic levels in the Dayton area, is a new addition to the Wright State coaching staff this season.

Gatrell served as the head girls volleyball coach at Wayne High School for two seasons and was the head boys volleyball coach there for one year. He also coached for three years with the Miami Valley Junior Olympic programs and worked with 16-and-under teams. Besides coaching, Gatrell also plays on the USA Volleyball Association.

A native of Piketon, Ohio, Gatrell's responsibilities at Wright State include on court training, opponent scouting and assisting Opperman with match strategy.

1994 REVIEW

The 1994 Wright State volleyball team started quickly but finished on a down note as the team went 16-13 overall and 5-5 in its first season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. It was the 15th winning season out of the last 16 for the Raiders and their 18th in the 22 seasons that Wright State has had volleyball.

The season started off well as WSU defeated Toledo, Florida Atlantic and Eastern Michigan at the South Florida Volleyball Classic in Tampa before losing to South Florida in the championship match. Senior middle hitter Jen Moore and junior outside hitter Jennifer Bringman were named to the all-tournament team.

The Raiders then competed in the Billiken Invitational at St. Louis the following weekend and defeated Samford and Texas-Pan American before losing to St. Louis in pool play. Wright State, however, did take third by defeating Missouri-Kansas City in four games. Jen Moore was named to her second all-tournament team in as many weekends and was joined by sophomore middle hitter Andrea Sanders.

Wright State then opened its home portion of the schedule by sweeping Murray State and West Virginia each in three games. Now 8-2 on the young season, WSU then traveled to Waco, Texas, to take part in the American-Airlines/La Quinta Classic. The Raiders finished fourth in the tournament, defeating Alabama-Birmingham, but lost to Sam Houston State, Arkansas-Little Rock and Baylor, the host school. Once again, Jen Moore was named to the all-tournament team.

After a victory at Cincinnati, Wright State opened its first season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference by defeating Cleveland State also on the road. The road swing concluded with losses at Bowling Green and Northern Illinois and a victory against Illinois-Chicago.

A six-match homestand started well with wins over Ohio in nonconference action, followed by La Salle, Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Wisconsin-Green Bay in MCC play. Unfortunately, due to injuries, the Green Bay victory would be the last Wright State would enjoy in 1994.

The Raiders dropped the final two games of the homestand to nationally ranked Notre Dame and to Loyola in the final home match of the season. WSU then dropped matches at Xavier, Butler and Dayton to close the regular season followed by an opening round loss against Northern Illinois in the first round of the MCC Tournament in DeKalb, Illinois.

Senior Jen Moore received the only postseason honor for Wright State as she was named Second Team All-MCC. The St. Louis native led the MCC in hitting percentage at .387 and finished 10th nationally in that category. Andrea Sanders led the conference in blocks per game at 1.70 and was tied for sixth in the nation. As a team, Wright State finished 29th nationally in hitting percentage at .264 and 13th in blocks per game at 3.10.

MIDWESTERN COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE

Halfway through its second decade, the Midwestern Collegiate Conference is different than it has ever been. It is also very much the same. After experiencing membership realignment and refocusing its goals, the MCC is positioned to build upon an established foundation.

A new logo symbolizing the MCC's revitalization was unveiled last year, and a positive focus includes specific goals for improving the league's market and competitive position. The conference has increased its size by 50 percent over the last two years and now includes nine schools; after expansion in 1994, the MCC now features both public and private institutions. The result has been an affiliation of institutions with similar athletics goals that provides stability and major-market exposure.

MCC markets, including five of the country's top 30 television markets, now include nearly 10 million TV households and encompass roughly 10 percent of the nation's television audience. The member institutions are generally located in major metropolitan areas and benefit from the business, cultural, educational and entertainment resources available to the university community.

The "new" MCC is anchored in a solid tradition that began in 1979. Originally formed as a men's sports league, the conference added women's athletics in 1986-87. League members continue to advocate competitive athletics as a valuable educational experience and as an important component in the process of higher education.

Each institution is committed to fielding a broad-based NCAA Division I athletics program that develops physical fitness, academic development and moral character in its student-athletes. Among the MCC's established operating principles are efforts to enhance the student-athlete experience and to maintain integrity, gender equity, academics excellence and fiscal responsibility in the athletics enterprise.

Best known for its men's basketball success, the MCC offers a total of 16 different championship sports (eight for men and eight for women). The league enjoys NCAA automatic qualification or play-in access in baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's soccer, softball and volleyball. The conference and its members have established ambitious goals for these "target priority" programs and continue to pursue national prominence in each. The MCC has also identified specific benchmarks for the continuation of its national basketball success and a position as one of the nation's top 10 Division I athletics conferences.

The MCC moved its offices to Indianapolis in 1985, where the league headquarters has contributed to the city's image as the "Amateur Sports Capital of the World." In addition to many conference championships held in the city, the MCC and Butler University have co-hosted a number of high-profile NCAA events.

Commissioner Jon LeCrone, the league's third full-time chief executive, assumed the leadership baton in June 1992 and heads a six-person staff.

THE ERVIN J. NUTTER CENTER

Wright State University's Ervin J. Nutter Center is a state-of-the-art entertainment and sports complex. The center features a 12,000 seat main arena, four basketball courts, a recreational running track, a multipurpose room, 60,000 square feet of exhibit space and classrooms.

As an entertainment complex, the versatility of the Nutter Center has made it one of the premier stopping points for major tours. Such major acts as Frank Sinatra, Paul Simon, Gloria Estefan, John Mellencamp, Elton John, the Oak Ridge Boys and Marie Osmond, Reba McEntire, two sold out shows each of Guns 'N Roses and Neil Diamond, two shows of Hammer and Boyz II Men, ZZ Top and a sold-out Garth Brooks have graced the stages, as well as AC/DC, Michael Bolton and INXS. The Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra has even made a return to the center. Such family show greats appearing at the center include Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus, Sesame Street, Lipizzaner Stallions, Moscow Circus, Ice Capades, World Cup Champions on Ice and Nickelodeon's Super Sloppy Double Dare and Family Double Dare. Add to these such events as the Queens' Own Highlanders and Coldstream Guard, Bobby Knight, Dick Vitale, Greene County Business Expo and various high school events such as chemistry shows and clinics, and you have a facility that has proven to be an integral part of the community in just the few years it has been open.

Home of Wright State's men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams, as well as the entire athletic department's offices, the Nutter Center has been the sight of many spectacular sporting events. The center welcomed the 1991 Women's National Invitational Volleyball Championship and was the site of the 1993 National Junior Olympic Taekwondo Competition. The NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers have held three exhibition contests at the Nutter Center—in 1992 against the Charlotte Hornets, in 1993 against the Boston Celtics and in 1994 against the New Jersey Nets. Another Nutter Center highlight has been the three men's basketball conference tournaments that Wright State has or will host—in 1993 with the Mid-Continent Conference and in 1995 and 1996 with the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. The center has hosted high school events such as the Ohio State Wrestling and Volleyball Tournaments since 1991, district basketball and volleyball play and the Miami Valley Basketball Fest. The Nutter Center has achieved a reputation, both nationally and locally, as a site for high caliber sporting events and competitions.

The facility has been heavily booked from the day it opened, averaging approximately one million guests per year. The Nutter Center started off on a path of a variety of entertainment and sporting events that sold out or pushed capacity on a regular basis. For its capacity, the Ervin J. Nutter Center was ranked the second highest grossing facility in the United States and fourth in the world for ticket sales in 1993, according to Amusement Business trade magazine.

About Wright State University

In the tradition of the nation's best universities, Wright State University is dedicated to teaching, research, and service. In addition, as a metropolitan university near Dayton, Ohio, Wright State has the distinct mission of providing leadership to improve the quality of life for the people of the Miami Valley. Wright State's link to area business, community, and research organizations in and around Dayton also offers unique educational opportunities to a diverse student body.

The university serves nearly 17,000 students with programs leading to more than 100 undergraduate and 40 graduate and professional degrees through six colleges and three schools. Wright State offers innovative educational programs, including doctoral programs in biomedical sciences, human factors and industrial/organizational psychology, medicine, and professional psychology; the nation's only aerospace medicine residency program for civilians; and a post-master's educational specialist degree program. Wright State's theatre, accounting, chemistry, geology, and engineering programs are recognized for excellence. The WSU Lake Campus near St. Marys and Celina, Ohio, offers associate and pre-baccalaureate degrees.

Wright State University's faculty is dedicated not only to advancing the frontiers of knowledge but also to applying knowledge to real problems. Most classes are small and taught by fully affiliated faculty members, 80 percent of whom hold the most advanced degrees in their fields. In addition, students gain hands-on experience through a variety of community-based programs, cooperative education, internships, and research projects operated with industry and government.
